

Comments:	Tandee demonstrated a working knowledge of instructional theory and music pedagogy while working with the students during her practicum. She was able to engage the students with her energetic approach and assertive voice. This was especially effective considering the sometimes talkative nature of the particular group she was working with. When students did engage in off task behaviors during transition time, Tandee was able to quickly redirect the students through the use of a variety of classroom management techniques. One piece of feedback I would offer is that while eye contact was good during instruction, it did seem like sometimes there was more focus on conducting patterns and reading the music during the rehearsal portion. I am confident however that with even more classroom experience, this will become more second nature and comfortable. It was a pleasure having Tandee work with my students and she is more than ready for her next step toward becoming a music educator.
